TUESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 23

LOCAL MATTERS

The section rain, warmer, southeasterly wind on the coast.

THE "NIGHT DOCTORS" AGAIN.—Sunday was one of the brightest of the year, the "Hunters' Moon" illuminating the heavens and making the night almost as light as day. Notwithstanding this a party of grave robbers or "night doctors" visited one of the cemeteries on the outskirts of Washington, "disinterred" the body of a well known colored man, who had been buried the day before in a long bag, and were on their way to a dissecting room, when they were discovered by the police. So bold were the "doctors" that they opened fire on the police, and a regular skirmish ensued, but finally they were outnumbered they threw the body in a ditch, and afterwards discovered, and disinterred it. It is said that all the medical colleges this year have a full complement of students, and that the demand for "sub jects" is so great and the "season" so early that a large corps of "doctors" are already in the field and are reaping a harvest. This year, too, are said to have adopted the method of the "doctors," and they make so intense that they seldom miss the object, or subject of their dissection, whether it be the quick or the dead, as they start out on their nocturnal expeditions. The Frederickburg Lance reports that a meeting of "night doctors" was held last town recently at which a plan of campaign was mapped out. This year, it is said, they have improved methods for resuscitating bodies as well as for "napping" live people, and that when a plaster is once applied over the mouth of a person his or her time has come. The reason given why colored subjects are most in demand is that the oil extracted from their bodies, after they have been cut up on the dissecting table, is of a better quality than that from white bodies.

CENTENNIAL OF A SYNOD.—The Centennial Session of the Synod of Virginia will be held at New Providence Church, in Rockbridge county, to-day. The first two days will be devoted entirely to the centennial exercises. The third opened this morning at 10 o'clock, when Rev. Dr. Prior preached to the session, and the centennial history of the synod was read. To-morrow Hon. John Randolph Tucker will deliver an address, and the same day Rev. Dr. Moses Hays, of Richmond, will preach the centennial sermon. During the day addresses will be made by members and foreign delegates. This will conclude the centennial exercises. The reason for holding this session at New Providence Church is because the synod first met there one hundred years ago. This church is one of the oldest in the State of Virginia. The synod of Virginia is composed of the Presbyteries of Abingdon, Chesapeake, which includes the Second church in this city, East Hampton, Greenbrier, Lexington, Maryland, Montgomery, Kanawha, West Hampton and Winchester. It has 234 ministers, 360 churches, and 30,549 communicants.

THE BURNING LOCOMOTIVE.—Capt. W. H. Brooks, of this city, who for some time has been perfecting the working of his great oil burning locomotive, yesterday had a train of thirteen cars up the W. & O. road, which, he says, his engine drew with ease, standing all the tests applied during the trip. Capt. Brooks says he is anxious to take his locomotive out west, to the oil region, where he will demonstrate to the world that oil can be used as fuel for engines at a much less cost than coal, while a danger from sparks and the annoyance from smoke will be done away with.

POOR REPORT.—Last night was cloudy and rainy with three prisoners and nine dogs at the station house. The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases: Three young white men, arrested by officers Gandy, Taylor and Hayes, charged with trespassing on the property of the Alexandria Musical Association, were discharged. The Island and Thos. Cubitt, colored, arrested by officer McCuen for an assault on John Bryant, were fined $2.50 each. Hattie Taylor, colored, arrested by officer Taylor for disorderly conduct, was fined $1.

"JIM THE PENMAN."—The Spirit of the Five Provinces "Jim the Penman," the play to be presented at the Opera House tonight, "the most novel, original and interesting play produced in New York for years." Its success, however, was not more due to itself than to the skill and care of its production, for the play's merit of naturalness in events and language might easily have been negated by uninteresting acting. The cast for tonight is nearly as strong as could be wished, including as it does that sterling actor Frank Bangs.

CORPORATION BONDS.—At a sale of personal property in Washington yesterday $1000 of Corporation of Alexandria three percent bonds, of the issue of 1879, were sold and sold at public auction after spirited bidding for $1.05—the highest price they have yet attained. They were purchased by Mr. M. B. Harlow, treasurer of this city, for the sinking fund commissioners, and when the purchaser's name was given surprise was expressed that the city was in a position to purchase its own bonds.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—The democrats of this city will hold a meeting at the Opera House to-morrow night, and will be addressed by Gen. W. H. F. Lee and Mr. William K. Moore. The Democratic Working Club, recently reorganized, will attend the meeting in a body. The gallery will be reserved for the ladies of the city, who are invited to attend the meeting.

GOOD TEMPLARS.—Golden Light Lodge of Good Templars, will hold a reunion at their lodge room on Columbus street to-night for the benefit of the old members. Mesd. D. D. D. of Loudoun county, will deliver an address and Miss Kallstrom and Miss Boyd, economists of Washington, have been engaged for the occasion.

It is estimated that boys with bean shooters are broken over a hundred and fifty dollars worth of glass in this city during the past few days.

Ladies

is delicate health, and all who suffer from habitual constipation, will find the pleasant California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, more easily taken and more beneficial in effect than any other remedy. It acts promptly, yet gently on the Bowels, Kidneys, Liver, and stomach, and does not sicken or debilitate. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Co.

There has been a great sufferer from catarrh for several years. Had it very bad, could hardly breathe. Some nights I could not sleep—had to walk the floor. I purchased Ely's Cream Balm, and using it freely, it is working a cure. I have advised several friends to use it, and with happy results in every case. It is the only medicine above all others made to cure catarrh, and it is worth its weight in gold. I thank God for this remedy. I have used it with safety and it does all that is claimed for it. It is curing my catarrh. (R. W. Sperry, Hartford, Conn.)

Mrs. Padelford's Divorce.—A Washington letter in the New York Sun says: "The divorce suit of Mrs. Padelford, Gen. Ordway's beautiful daughter, attracts great interest here, where Gen. Ordway lives, the more so because it is a matter of general report that as soon as the divorce is granted Mrs. Padelford will marry young George Eustice, Mr. W. W. Corcoran's grandson and heir to some of his millions. Mrs. Padelford and her child have been for a year at her father's house on 20th street, near Dupont circle. She is beautiful, has a superb voice and is 21 years old. Three years ago she met Mr. Padelford in Washington, during the rehearsal of an amateur opera, in which she had a leading part. She was considered the prettiest debutante of the season. They were married soon after and went to Vienna, that Mrs. Padelford might cultivate her voice. While there the trouble began and last December Mrs. Padelford returned with her month old child to her father's house. Mr. Padelford brings the suit."

AFTER A HORSE THIEF.—The sheriff of this county and of Calvert county, Md., are running a race to capture the negro Oliver Wade, who is charged with cases of horse stealing in each of the counties named, and who is now under arrest in Washington. It is charged that he first stole a horse from this county, which he traded in Calvert county; that he then stole a horse and wagon from Calvert county, and with the horse he had traded for went to Washington and was arrested. A defective requisition arrived in Washington from Maryland Saturday, and yesterday the sheriff from Alexandria county arrived. The Maryland sheriff has gone after another requisition and the Alexandria sheriff has done the same, and as it now stands the first one who returns will get the prisoner.

DEATH OF MR. RICE.—Mr. John P. Rice, a well known citizen of the Second ward, died at his home on the corner of Fairfax and Queen streets, about 10 o'clock this morning, of rheumatism of the heart, after an illness of but a few days. Mr. Rice for some time represented the Second ward in the Common Council. His genial disposition endeared him to all who knew him and his death will be regretted by a large circle of friends. He was a nephew of Mr. James Rice, whose death was announced yesterday.

SENT TO FAUQUIER.—Richard Gillerson, the colored preacher who stole a horse from Mr. Buckner, of Delaplane, last week, and was arrested in Washington, where he held the horse, and brought to this city, was this morning turned over to an officer from Fauquier county, and taken back to that county for trial.

PERSONAL.—Mr. W. B. Sacket and Lieut. Albert Bryan have gone to Rappahannock county.

Miss India Landrum, of Gordonsville, who has been visiting Miss Effie Lynch, has gone to Baltimore to spend the winter.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

No courts were in session to-day.

This has been a raw, gloomy, rainy day.

The funeral of the late Maj. W. D. Nutt took place this evening and was attended by many friends of the family.

Sarah Johnson, colored, who has lived on the Mt. Vernon estate for thirty years, and who is well and favorably known in that locality, is to be married on Thursday to William Robinson, a worthy colored man of "City View," Fairfax county, and has sent invitations to her wedding to many of her acquaintances in this city.

An inoffensive young man, though addicted to the too free indulgence of whiskey, ginger and other liquors, last night visited the locality of his former residence on south Fairfax street when he was set upon by a crowd of bad boys of that neighborhood who treated him to a shower of over ripe tomatoes and otherwise despoiled him. When he got free from his tormentors he looked like one escaped from the wreck of a catnap manufactory after the explosion of the kettle—and the villains still pursue!
